

Walter “Skip” Auch

Walter “Skip” Auch is the founder and managing director of Auch Partners LLC, an executive search firm specializing in investment banking, capital markets, securities analysis, investment management, and private banking/wealth management assignments. Prior to that, he served as Director at Oppedisano & Co., Inc. an executive search practice specializing in investment management and mutual fund assignments (equity, fixed income, and alternative investments).

Skip’s career has also included positions in the financial broadcasting industry, having served as vice president of the Financial News Network/CNBC, with responsibilities for programming, sales and relationship management, marketing, and distribution. Prior to that he was a vice-president of the investment firms Paine, Webber, Jackson & Curtis, and then Kidder Peabody & Co.

Skip currently serves on the Board of the Renaissance Capital Greenwich Fund, a Mutual Fund and ETF complex investing in Initial Public Offerings (IPOs) He is also is past board member, treasurer and president of the Bond Club of New York; creator, producer, writer, and host of WGCH Radio’s “Sound Investing”, active in his church, and a member of the Greenwich Leadership Forum and Kappa Beta Phi, among many other activities.

Skip holds a BA in History from Ohio Wesleyan University, and an MBA in Finance from NYU’s Stern School of Business.

